

The Gold Star Bridge Gambol (short version)

Total Distance: 53.6 miles

Elevation Gain: 1374 feet

Degree of Difficulty Index: 1374 ft / 53.6 mi = 25.63 ft/mi Terrain: Flat to rolling

Killer Hills: None

Geographical Region: Southeast Connecticut

City/Town: Niantic (East Lyme)

Starting Location: Samuel M. Peretz Park (formerly Bridebrook Park) on Route 156 about 0.4 miles east of the Rocky Neck Connector (I-95 Exit 72) intersection with Route 156 in Niantic (East Lyme)

Ride Description: This is a neat ride over mostly flat terrain to the suggested lunch stop at UConn's Avery Point campus in Groton. Featured are visits to (or passing close to) Black Point, McCook Park, Connecticut Regional Center for Mental Retardation, Harkness Park, Camp Harkness, O'Neill Center, Mitchell College, Pfizer's Research Center, Fort Trumbull State Park and Fort Griswold Battlefield State Park (amongst others). Use the bike/pedestrian path over the Gold Star Memorial Bridge, both going and coming. There is a lot to see and admire on this lengthy but scenic ride.

Note: The first 38.7 miles of this ride is exactly the same route as the longer version of the Gold Star Bridge Gambol. This ride takes a different and slightly shorter return route.
